If the party receiving the notice does not accept any of the persons proposed as arbitrator, it shall notify the other party accordingly within five (5) school days and shall indicate the person or persons it is willing to accept as a single arbitrator.

If the parties are unable to agree on a person to act as a single arbitrator, either party may make a written request to the Federal Minister of Labour to appoint an arbitrator, and any person so appointed shall be deemed, for all purposes, to have been appointed pursuant to the collective agreement between the parties.

The arbitrator shall inquire into and determine the difference and shall issue an award in writing. The decision of the arbitrator is final and binding upon the parties and upon every employee affected by it.

- 21.06 The arbitrator shall determine the arbitration procedure but shall give full opportunity to all parties to present evidence and to be heard.
- 21.07 The arbitrator shall have authority to determine whether any matter is arbitrable.
- 21.08 The arbitrator shall not change, modify or alter any of the terms of this Agreement.
- 21.09 If the arbitrator, by his award, determines that an employee has been discharged or otherwise disciplined by an employer for cause, and if the collective agreement does not contain a specific penalty for the infraction that is the subject matter of the arbitration, the arbitrator may substitute any penalty for the discharge or discipline that, to the arbitrator, seems just and reasonable in all the circumstances.
- 21.10 The parties shall bear equally the fees and expenses of the arbitrator.
- 21.11 The purpose of the grievance procedure provisions is to ensure that any grievance is processed in an expeditious manner. Therefore, compliance with the time limits is mandatory. If a grieving party does not advance the grievance within the time limits specified, the grievance will be deemed to be abandoned and inarbitrable unless the parties agreed in writing to waive any time limit. If the respondent fails to comply with the provisions of the grievance procedure, the grievance is processed to the next step, unless the parties agree otherwise.

- 21.12 By mutual written agreement between the parties, the time limits for each stage of the grievance/arbitration procedure may be extended.
- 21.13 As an alternative to the formal arbitration process set out above, by mutual agreement of the parties a grievance may be referred to someone who will hear the grievance and at the conclusion of the hearing, give a written order without reasons.

These decisions may not be used to alter, modify or amend any part of the Collective Agreement, and are made without precedent or prejudice to similar or like cases.

The written order will be final and binding upon both parties and no further action may be taken on that grievance by any means.

Any costs incurred in this procedure shall be shared equally by the parties.
