Dene Kede

Dene Kede, the culture-based curriculum of the NWT, serves as the heart of the NWT Curriculum. Dene Kede was developed under the guidance of Dene elders and shares, through its teachings, the knowledge, skills, and values of the Dene. These cultural understandings serve as the underpinnings for all learning in all content areas and it is expected that the teachings and knowledge contained within Dene Kede shall be woven into all lessons. In this manner our students will become more capable, more successful and better able to walk in two worlds.

	• The boys began to accompany the adult men on hunts. With the "first kill" of a young man Elders would tear at his clothing to celebrate the emergence of a provider and to remind him that there were those with whom he should share his catch. If the first kill was a large one, the whole community celebrated and the meat would be distributed to the Elders.
	• They learned to make and repair tools, they learned about time, direction and weather as it related to travelling.
	• They learned how to work with a leader in large hunts, cooperating to ensure success.
	• They were made to go off on hunting trips alone as a test of their knowledge and skills and mental stamina and courage.
	• When the young man proved capable and self-sufficient on the land, he was

Major Cultural Understanding: Dene spiritualit	ty is attached to the land.
Cite and write stories about your Dene	• Dene oral stories tell about when the world was new.
Spirituality	• The Creator made the land and the animals fist and then made the people.
	• The Creator gave medicine powers to all people who lived good lives to use to help others to survive. These medicine powers were spirit powers from nature.
	• Spiritual brothers were sent to the earth to bring laws to the land and to people.
	These laws were meant to help the Dene so that we could live with the animal creatures and with each other more peacefully.
	• Messages have been left in the form of landmarks throughout our land to remind us of the sacredness of the land and the Dene laws which are to guide our lives.

Major Cultural Understanding: A person's tale	ent must be discovered.
Discuss ways students can identify personal	• Things come easily to those with talent.
talents and talents of those around them	• People in one's family may know the talents of the family members.
	• Elders are often able to see talents in the young. If the young are able to take the advice of Elders, they can discover the talents in themselves.
	• In the past young people were advised by Elders in their dream quests as they searched for their spiritual powers.
	• Elders with finely developed talents and wisdom were mentors for the young who showed talents in their areas
Major Cultural Understanding: An Individual
Identify why and ways that people in your community should share their talents.	• Special talents and abilities are provided to individuals by the Creator in order for them to be shared.
	• Talents were meant by the Creator to help people survive and to live a better life.
	• Talents that are not shared are left unused (can't be shy or lazy). You receive back what you give away or share in the way of talents.
	• Individuals should not use talents for self-gain. One should not expect payment for the sharing of a talent.
	• Gifts should be offered in exchange for the sharing of talent in order to enable the person to maintain his or her talent.
Major Cultural Understanding: A person with Discuss why it is important that a person	• A person with talent must not boast of it or ridicule others who do not have it.
with talent remain humble.	• A person with talent does not speak of his talent. It is left to others to recognize community with talents.	• The Dene believe that certain activities are more spiritual in nature than others and when people have talents in these activities they are gifted with medicine powers and are considered very important people to the culture. Examples are midwifery, drumming and dancing.

	• Talents today come in other forms that are useful to our lives: talents such as being a good truck driver, being a good teacher or being a good mechanic.

	AAT Part A Narrative Writing –Test Bluepri	nt
Reporting Category	Looking For	Description of Writing Assignments
Content (selecting ideas and details to achieve a purpose)	Students respond to a given topic by writing a narrative or an essay. Students establish their purpose, select ideas and supporting details to achieve the purpose, and communicate in a manner appropriate to their audience.	The Narrative / Essay Writing Assignment requires students to respond to a prompt that consists of a topic, as well as a collection of materials that students may use if they wish. These materials include graphics, quotes, and short literary excerpts. Students may use ideas from previous experience and/or reading. Students are to respond by writing a narrative or an essay.
Organization (organizing ideas and details into a coherent whole)	Students organize their ideas to produce a unified and coherent narrative or essay that links events, details, sentences, and paragraphs, and that supports the purpose.
Sentence Structure (structuring sentences effectively)	Students control sentence structure and use a variety of sentence types, sentence beginnings, and sentence lengths to enhance communication.
Vocabulary (selecting and using words and expressions correctly and effectively)	Students choose specific words and expressions that are appropriate for their audience and effective in establishing a voice/tone that will help to achieve their purpose.
Conventions (using the conventions of written language correctly and effectively)	Students use conventions accurately and effectively to communicate.
Content and Organization are weighted to be worth twice as much as each of the other categories

AAT Part B Reading – Grade 9: Test Blueprint
Reporting Category	Looking For	Types of Reading Passages
Identifying and Interpreting Ideas and Details	Students construct meaning by interpreting ideas and details pertaining to setting / atmosphere / context / character / narrator / speaker (actions, motives, values, conflict, and events	There are various types of reading passages on the AAT: informational texts and narrative/poetic texts. Stories and poems comprise almost 60% of the test.
Interpreting Text Organization (Students identify and analyze literary genres)	Students identify and analyze the text creator's choice of form, tone, point of view, organizational structure, style, diction, rhetorical techniques (e.g., repetition, parallelism), text features (e.g., alliteration, onomatopoeia, imagery, foreshadowing, suspense), and conventions.
Associating Meaning	Students use contextual clues to determine the denotative and connotative meaning of words, phrases, and figurative language (e.g., simile, metaphor, hyperbole, personification, irony, symbolism).
Synthesizing Ideas	Students draw conclusions and make generalizations by integrating information in order to identify the tone, purpose, theme, main idea, or mood of a passage.
