Dene Kede

Dene Kede, the culture-based curriculum of the NWT, serves as the heart of the NWT Curriculum. Dene Kede was developed under the guidance of Dene elders and shares, through its teachings, the knowledge, skills, and values of the Dene. These cultural understandings serve as the underpinnings for all learning in all content areas and it is expected that the teachings and knowledge contained within Dene Kede shall be woven into all lessons. In this manner our students will become more capable, more successful and better able to walk in two worlds.

Passage to Manhood

Outcomes	Achievement Indicators – Measurable outcomes
It is expected that students will:	The following set of indicators is used to assess student achievement for each related specific learning outcome. Students who have fully met the specific learning outcomes are able to:
Major Cultural Understanding: In the past, puberty for boys signified an important change.
Discuss and understand that in the past, puberty for boys signified an important change.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Puberty was marked with a change in the voice of a boy. • In times past, the Dene believed that young boys and girls gained spiritual power, as they became adolescents. • Passage into puberty began a period of intense training for young boys, in preparation for manhood.
Major Cultural Understanding: After puberty, boys began an intensive training for manhood.
Describe ways after puberty, that boys began training for manhood.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Training began when boys were very young but during adolescence it became very intensive and the expectations grew considerably. • The boys began to accompany the adult men on hunts. With the "first kill" of a young man Elders would tear at his clothing to celebrate the emergence of a provider and to remind him that there were those with whom he should share his catch. If the first kill was a large one, the whole community celebrated and the meat would be distributed to the Elders. • They learned to make and repair tools, they learned about time, direction and weather as it related to travelling. • They learned how to work with a leader in large hunts, cooperating to ensure success. • They were made to go off on hunting trips alone as a test of their knowledge and skills and mental stamina and courage. • When the young man proved capable and self-sufficient on the land, he was recognized as a man and allowed to marry
Major Cultural Understanding: Some tribes trained their boys in a separate camp during their passage.
Describe and record how some tribes trained their boys in camps during their passage.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The boys were put through a period of training away from others. • They were given rigorous challenges such as sleeping by sitting upright, or working without a break right after waking. • These challenges were meant to condition their bodies and to develop mental stamina.
Major Cultural Understanding: Some tribes engaged their young men in dream quests.
Discuss what a Dream Quest might have been like for a young man	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Stories of dream quests were told to the young people from the time they were young so that they could look forward to the time that they would begin their own quests. • Even today, puberty signifies an important change in boys. • Dream quests were sacred spiritual experiences where the young men would receive dreams or visions, which communicated their medicine powers • Young men were encouraged to stay in the bush, away from others in order to enable dreams. • There were times that dreams did not come at all to boys, and other times when boys became old men before the dreams would come to them. There were powers, which existed only in the people who showed courage and concern
Major Cultural Understanding: As in the past, boys today can use the time of their passage to prepare themselves for manhood
Discuss ways in which young man prepare today for manhood and record responses	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • By knowing that the changes in their bodies signify the ability to father a child • By recognizing the spiritual possibilities within themselves and treating themselves with respect • By accepting and seeking the guidance of Elders and other men

Spirit of the Land
Major Cultural Understanding: Dene spirituality is attached to the land.
Cite and write stories about your Dene Spirituality	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dene oral stories tell about when the world was new. • The Creator made the land and the animals first and then made the people. • The Creator gave medicine powers to all people who lived good lives to use to help others to survive. These medicine powers were spirit powers from nature. • Spiritual brothers were sent to the earth to bring laws to the land and to people. These laws were meant to help the Dene so that we could live with the animal creatures and with each other more peacefully. • Messages have been left in the form of landmarks throughout our land to remind us of the sacredness of the land and the Dene laws which are to guide our lives.
Major Cultural Understanding: Dene prophets have seen the past and the future and have relayed messages about how to deal with the changes that are happening to the Dene.
List examples of the ways in which the Dene prophets have seen the past and the future and have relayed messages about how to deal with the changes that are happening to the Dene. Describe how this knowledge is important in today's changing society	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The prophets are people who have received messages for the Dene people from the Creator. • The prophets have communicated that changes will put great pressures upon Dene. • Dene prophets have seen the past and the future and have relayed messages about how to deal with the changes that are happening to the Dene
Major Cultural Understanding: When missions and churches first arrived they tried to discourage the practice of Dene spirituality.
Recall ways in which the missions and churches tried to discourage the practice of Dene spirituality.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Each community has its own stories of how their Dene spirituality was discouraged. • Despite the pressures to abandon Dene spirituality, many of the beliefs have persisted and are accepted into many churches.
Major Cultural Understanding: Today, Dene people continue their spiritual ties to the land.
Give examples of how the Dene people continue their spiritual ties to the land.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Belief that without the land, life is not possible. • Belief that the land must be honoured and protected to ensure that it continues to sustain the people. • Belief that in honouring the land, the Creator is being honoured. • Belief in the ways of respect for the land: • Belief that medicine powers have diminished but exist in the form of talents among people.

Major Cultural Understanding: A person's talent must be discovered.
Discuss ways students can identify personal talents and talents of those around them	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Things come easily to those with talent. • People in one's family may know the talents of the family members. • Elders are often able to see talents in the young. If the young are able to take the advice of Elders, they can discover the talents in themselves. • In the past young people were advised by Elders in their dream quests as they searched for their spiritual powers. • Elders with finely developed talents and wisdom were mentors for the young who showed talents in their areas
Major Cultural Understanding: An Individual should share their talent.
Identify why and ways that people in your community should share their talents.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Special talents and abilities are provided to individuals by the Creator in order for them to be shared. • Talents were meant by the Creator to help people survive and to live a better life. • Talents that are not shared are left unused (can't be shy or lazy). You receive back what you give away or share in the way of talents. • Individuals should not use talents for self-gain. One should not expect payment for the sharing of a talent. • Gifts should be offered in exchange for the sharing of talent in order to enable the person to maintain his or her talent.
Major Cultural Understanding: A person with talent is humble.
Discuss why it is important that a person with talent remain humble.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A person with talent must not boast of it or ridicule others who do not have it. • A person with talent does not speak of his talent. It is left to others to recognize and speak of the talent.
Major Cultural Understanding: Dene talents come in many forms.
Discuss and identify the people in your community with talents.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Some talents are closer to the Creator than other talents. • The Dene believe that certain activities are more spiritual in nature than others and when people have talents in these activities they are gifted with medicine powers and are considered very important people to the culture. Examples are midwifery, drumming and dancing. • Talents today come in other forms that are useful to our lives: talents such as being a good truck driver, being a good teacher or being a good mechanic.
